

The Indiana Telephone Privacy Act has been the best legislature to have been passed in Indiana in the past decade. The CBA is now challenging this act and once again flexing the arrogance that our financial institutions have for the public. Again and again the CBA has shown a total disregard for the public. We ask that you uphold the privacy act and deny the banks their request.